

OVERVIEW

Paul Goldstein is an Attorney in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office and is the Director of the firm's Immigration and Nationality Law Practice. Paul is an immigration lawyer who focuses his practice on the complex immigration and naturalization laws of the United States. He represents individuals and businesses with nationality law issues and immigration matters including Green Cards/ Adjustment of Status, Naturalization and Citizenship, Deportation defense and relief from removal, Employment-related visas, I-9 employment verification and eligibility, Asylum in the USA, Temporary Protected Status (TPS), Criminal matters affecting Immigration status and E-1/E-2 Treaty Trader/ Treaty Investor Visas.

Prior to joining the firm, Paul worked as a solo practitioner and Managing Partner of a boutique law firm devoted exclusively to helping people immigrate to the U.S.

PUBLICATIONS

- Advice for permanent residents before applying for US citizenship, Expert Beacon, September 16, 2014
- How to correctly suspend or fire an employee with an H1B visa, Expert Beacon, June 27, 2014
- How To Replace a Lost, Stolen or Expired US Green Card, Expert Beacon, May 6 2014
- Use An Experienced Attorney to Claim Asylum in the United States, Expert Beacon, April 22, 2014
- Advice to Employers on Securing an H-1B Visa for Your Foreign Employee, Expert Beacon, November 19, 2013

ASSOCIATIONS

- American Immigration Lawyers Association

CONTACT INFORMATION

pgoldstein@kklaw.com
Office: (954) 370-9970 Cell: (954) 257-3649

PRACTICE AREAS

- Immigration and Nationality Law
- Workers' Compensation

ADMISSIONS

- Florida
- Texas

EDUCATION

- Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center, J.D., 1983
- St. John's University, B.S., 1978