

Kelley Kronenberg Adds Liliana Lyon to Expanding Marketing Department

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. – Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Ryan J. Adams and Jordan M. Greenberg have joined the firm's Fort Lauderdale office as Attorneys.

Adams assists in handling matters related to Workers' Compensation defense.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Adams worked as an Associate Attorney at a personal injury firm in Hallandale Beach. Adams' experience includes litigating and negotiating settlement terms between insurance companies and clients.

Adams earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science from the University of Florida and his Juris Doctor degree from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad College of Law. During law school, he was the Executive Producer of the Law School Radio Program and was a member of the Phi Alpha Delta Legal Society. He is admitted to practice law in Florida.

Greenberg assists in handling matters related to all aspects of liability and casualty defense, with a focus on Third-Party Insurance Defense.

Prior to joining the firm, Greenberg was an Associate Attorney for a Florida insurance defense firm where he represented clients in general liability matters including premises liability, automobile negligence, negligent security, and product liability defense. Additionally, he worked as a Law Clerk and a Summer Associate at a Florida litigation defense firm where he handled matters involving product liability, negligence, employment law, and bankruptcy law.

Greenberg earned his Bachelor of Arts degree, cum laude, in Political Science from the University of Florida. He then went on to earn his Juris Doctor degree, summa cum laude, from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center, where he was a Goodwin Scholar and graduated in the top 5% of his class. While at Nova, Greenberg served on the Executive Board of the Nova Law Review as the Lead Articles Editor, and he held several teaching and research assistant positions in the areas of Criminal Law and Lawyering Skills & Values. He is admitted to practice law in Florida and the United States District Court, Southern District of Florida.

Miami, FL – Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Alexander C. Alonso has joined the firm's Miami Lakes office as an Attorney. Alonso assists in handling matters related to Workers' Compensation defense.

Prior to joining the firm, Alonso worked as a Management & Program Analyst with the Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Customs and Border Protection in Indianapolis. He also previously served as a Legal Intern with the Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement in Miami.

Alonso earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Health Services Administration from Florida International University and his Juris Doctor degree from the St. Thomas University School of Law. While in law school, Alonso served as a Judicial Intern for the Honorable Marisa Tinkler-

Mendez of the 11th Judicial Circuit of Florida. He was also awarded with a certificate from the St. Thomas University School of Law for completing more than 200 hours of pro bono work.

Alonso is admitted to practice law in Florida and the District of Columbia.

MIAMI, Fla. – Kell

Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Dennis S. Klein has joined the firm's Miami office as a Partner. Klein focuses his practice on business litigation, including director and officer liability, real estate and contractual disputes, professional liability, financial institution issues, product liability, pharmaceutical litigation, bankruptcy, insurance coverage, art law and employment matters. He also handles cybersecurity litigation. His broad range of practice areas and significant experience will be an added asset to the firm's Commercial Litigation practice.

As an added benefit to his business clients, Klein is a State of Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit and Appellate Mediator and has participated in hundreds of mediations. Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, he was the owner of an alternative dispute resolution practice that specialized in commercial disputes, which he has now merged with Kelley Kronenberg's existing mediation practice.

"We are pleased to welcome Dennis to Kelley Kronenberg," said Michael Fichtel, firm Principal Partner and CEO. "His broad commercial litigation experience, successful mediation practice and proven track record of providing exceptional representation to some of the world's largest companies and financial institutions strategically enhances our offerings to our clients."

Klein has three decades of experience both prosecuting and defending all facets of commercial litigation. Klein has represented the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in litigation arising from major bank failures throughout the country. While working for a Wall Street based international law firm, he led litigation that involved the officers and directors of the two biggest banking failures in Florida, and represented billion dollar companies in product liability matters. Additionally, his background includes substantial appellate experience in state and federal courts throughout the country.

"I am excited to help grow our commercial litigation practice and presence in Florida," said Klein. "Kelley Kronenberg's extensive resources, multi-jurisdictional practices, professional administrative and support staff and sophisticated, diverse clientele provides me a solid platform to offer clients quality legal work and exceptional service at an affordable price."

Klein received his Bachelor of Arts degree, magna cum laude, from Muhlenberg College and a master's degree from the University of Virginia. He earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Virginia School of Law, where he was on the editorial board of the Virginia Law Review. He currently serves as an Adjunct Professor at both Florida International University School of Law and University of Miami School of Law teaching courses on mediation advocacy.

He is admitted to practice law in Florida, the District of Columbia and Virginia as well as numerous federal courts throughout the country.

Kelley Kronenberg is excited to be a sponsor of ANSWERS 2018: ALFN's 16th Annual Conference. The conference takes place July 22 - 25, 2018 at the Ritz Carlton Bacara Resort in Santa Barbara, CA. Partner, Jason Vanslette will be moderating a presentation entitled, "Blockchain and Crypto-Technology: The Future of Mortgage Servicing?" The presentation takes place on Monday, July 23 from 9:30 AM - 10:30 AM in the Santa Ynez Salon. Be sure to stop by! Partner Reena Patel Sanders, Chief Business Marketing and Business Development Officer Tom Choberka and Attorney Lauren Einhorn will also be in attendance. ANSWERS is an invitation-only mortgage servicing and regulatory compliance event. The conference brings together over 300 mortgage servicing and legal professionals, and attracts executives from servicers, government-sponsored enterprises, national banking institutions and ALFN's leading network of attorneys, trustees and industry service providers. The four-day conference focuses on cutting-edge educational sessions and peer networking in a casual environment. See you there!TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Quentin \(Tod\) Stupski has joined the firm's Tallahassee office as an Attorney. Stupski assists in handling matters related to Workers' Compensation defense and Appeals. He possesses more than 20 years of experience handling Workers' Compensation claims and litigation for insurers, self-insured companies, and government entities. As a thought leader in this field, he frequently presents at national conferences on Workers' Compensation matters. Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Stupski served as the Bureau Chief of the Division of Risk Management for the Florida Department of Financial Services. He supervised and managed the Workers' Compensation self-insured program for the state of Florida. He also served as an Assistant General Counsel for the Florida Department of Financial Services, where he was responsible for providing legal representation for agency investigations on issues related to violations of Florida's Insurance Code. Additionally, Stupski has advised legislators and business executives on developing legislative proposals within Florida and 12 other southeastern states through the National Council of Compensation Insurance. He has drafted, reviewed, and analyzed Workers' Compensation and related legislation for many Workers' Compensation rating organizations. Stupski earned his Bachelor of Science Degree, with honors, in Economics from Florida State University and his Juris Doctor Degree from the University of Alabama. He is admitted to practice law in Florida and is a Certified Supreme Court Mediator.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Regina Franco Murphey has joined the firm's Fort Lauderdale office as a Partner and Jacob \(Jake\) S. Slotin has joined as an Attorney.

Murphey focuses her practice on all aspects of liability and casualty defense. She represents a diverse range of clients in general liability matters including wrongful death, transportation liability, premises liability, automobile negligence, construction defect litigation, admiralty and insurance defense.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Murphey served as In-House Counsel for two national insurance companies. She has litigated first and third party insurance claims from inception through trial and has nearly a decade of experience as First Chair Lead Attorney in jury trials.

Murphey earned her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Florida and her Juris Doctor degree from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law. She is admitted to practice law in Florida as well as the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, and she is fluent in Spanish.

Slotin assists in handling matters related to all aspects of liability and casualty defense with a focus on Third-Party Defense.

Prior to joining the firm, Slotin worked as an Associate Attorney for a prominent Florida insurance defense firm where he represented clients in general liability matters including medical malpractice, legal malpractice, professional liability, negligent security, construction defect litigation, wrongful death, trucking and transportation liability, premises liability, automobile negligence, and general insurance defense.

Slotin earned his Bachelor of Arts degree, cum laude, in Philosophy from Florida State University and his Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from Florida State University College of Law. While in law school, he served as a Clerk for Judge Stephanie Ray in Florida's First District Court of Appeal. He is admitted to practice law in Florida.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Kyle S. Roberts, an Attorney in the Fort Lauderdale office of Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, was recently appointed to the Editorial Board of The Florida Bar Journal and News for a three year term. Roberts was appointed to the Editorial Board by Michelle Suskauer, the President of The Florida Bar. The Florida Bar Journal is the premier source of practical articles on Florida law and The Florida Bar News serves as a resource for statewide news on law related issues.

Roberts previously held a similar position when he served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad College of Law's Nova Law Review.

In his legal practice at Kelley Kronenberg, Roberts assists in handling matters related to Third Party Insurance Defense and General Liability. He is experienced in trial litigation and previously served as a Graduate Fellow at the Fourth District Court of Appeal, where he worked on civil and criminal appellate matters. Additionally, he served as a Law Clerk for the United States Attorney's Office in the Southern District of Florida.

Roberts earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Florida Atlantic University and his Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad College of Law. While in law school, he earned a spot on the Dean's List in addition to earning a Merit Scholarship and the school's Pro Bono Honor Award.

He is admitted to practice law in Florida and the United States District Court, Southern District of Florida.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, is proud to announce that Partner Jeffrey M. Wank was selected as an On the Rise honoree by the Daily Business Review. Lawyers selected for this honor are recognized as legal overachievers under the age of 40 who stand out in their respective fields for their contributions and achievements. All of the honorees were celebrated at the Daily Business Review's annual Professional Excellence Awards on May 30 at the Rusty Pelican in Miami.

"I'm truly honored to be recognized among this talented group of legal professionals," said Wank. "Young lawyers are making amazing contributions to the South Florida legal community, and beyond, and I'm incredibly proud to be acknowledged for my work in our industry."

Wank focuses on First Party Property Insurance Defense Litigation, including coverage and bad faith litigation. He also handles the defense of a wide array of Third Party Insurance Defense claims, including personal injury, premises liability, medical malpractice, and nursing home liability claims. He also serves as coverage and bad faith counsel in these third party actions. Additionally, Wank has experience handling complex civil and commercial matters, employment discrimination, homeowner and condominium association claims, and construction defect cases.

Wank has received many accolades from the legal industry. He has been included in Florida Super Lawyers magazine's Rising Stars list every year since 2015.

Earlier this year, he was named Vice Chair of the Board of Directors for Coast to Coast Legal Aid of South Florida (CCLA), Legal Aid Service of Broward County (LAS) and Legal Aid Service of Collier County (LASCC) for the 2018 term. Additionally, he is on the Board of Directors for the B'nai B'rith Justice Unit, and is currently involved in mentor/mentee programs to help assist younger lawyers in the community. He previously served as Chair of the Jewish Federation of Broward County's Horizons Leadership Program and is a Past President of the Broward County Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section Board of Directors.

Wank earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science from Florida State University and went on to earn his Juris Doctor Degree from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law. He is admitted to practice law in Florida.

FORT LAUDERDALE/TAMPA, Fla. – Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that firm partners Dennis J. LeVine and Louis Reinstein have been selected to the 2018 Florida Super Lawyers list. Additionally, Partner Jeffrey M. Wank and Attorney Marc A. Marra were selected for inclusion in the 2018 Florida Rising Stars list, a designation in the Super Lawyers publication.

Super Lawyers, part of Thomson Reuters, is a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The annual selections are made using a patented multiphase process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, an independent research evaluation of candidates and peer reviews by practice area.

Attorney Bios:

Dennis J. LeVine, a Partner in Kelley Kronenberg's Tampa office, focuses his statewide practice on bankruptcy litigation and creditors' rights. LeVine is one of only seven attorneys in Florida to be Board Certified in both consumer bankruptcy law and business bankruptcy law by the American Board of Certification (ABC). He was selected in the category of Bankruptcy: Consumer and has been listed in Florida Super Lawyers magazine since 2009.

Louis Reinstein, a Partner in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, focuses his practice on Municipal Liability, Police Professional Litigation, Correctional Healthcare, Civil Rights Violations, and Commercial Litigation. He has extensive experience in state and federal civil court, working on both trial and appellate cases. He was selected for General Litigation and was previously included on the Florida Rising Stars list from 2012 to 2016 as well as on the Florida Super Lawyers list in 2017.

Jeffrey M. Wank, a Partner in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, focuses his practice on First Party Property Insurance Defense Litigation, including coverage and bad faith litigation, as well as a wide array of Third Party Insurance Defense claims. He was selected in the Insurance Coverage category and has been listed in Florida Rising Stars since 2015.

Marc A. Marra, an Attorney in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, focuses his practice on assisting banks and other financial service providers with regulatory, enforcement, transactional, and litigation matters. He also represents Condominium and Homeowner's Associations throughout South Florida. He was selected in the Real Estate category for the first time in his legal career.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. - Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Liliana Lyon has joined the firm's Marketing Department as Marketing Project Manager. In this newly created position, Lyon will oversee the development and execution of key marketing initiatives, including digital marketing, graphic design, advertising, media relations, and branding.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Lyon gained valuable experience serving as the Marketing and Brand Manager at U-GLOVE, Inc., where she was responsible for developing and executing brand awareness initiatives, digital marketing strategies, and print advertising campaigns.

Lyon earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Advertising from Barry University, where she graduated with honors. She is also a member of the Alpha Chi National Honor Society.

In order to support the significant growth of the firm's attorneys and practice areas over the past few years, new positions have been added to the administrative and marketing teams. In addition to Lyon, the firm recently added Jorge Cosio as Chief Strategy Officer, Barbara Repandis as Chief Human Resources Officer and Denise D. Lehr as Director of Professional Development and Compliance.