

Kelley Kronenberg Attorney Alison J. Trejo Sworn In As a Guardian ad Litem

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Alison J. Trejo, an attorney in the Fort Lauderdale office of law firm Kelley Kronenberg, was officially sworn in as a Guardian ad Litem by Broward County Circuit Judge Kenneth Gillespie.

A Guardian ad Litem is a trained volunteer appointed by the court to protect the rights and advocate the best interests of a child involved in a court proceeding. The Guardian ad Litem makes independent recommendations to the court by focusing on the needs of each child and advocating for the best interests of the child they represent.

In her legal practice at Kelley Kronenberg, Ms. Trejo focuses her practice on First Party Property Insurance Defense Litigation. She is a member of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division, the Animal Law Section of The Florida Bar, the Broward County Bar Association, and the Broward County Hispanic Bar Association.

Ms. Trejo received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration from Florida International University and her Master's degree in Business Administration from Nova Southeastern University, Wayne Huizenga School of Business. She later earned her Juris Doctor degree from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad School of Law. She is admitted to practice law in Florida and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.
