

Kelley Kronenberg Adds Randy Moreau as Chief Accounting Officer

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. – As Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, continues to strengthen its leadership, recruiting, human resources, and accounting efforts, the firm announced an expansion of its executive team with a new position focused on overseeing and developing long-term financial strategies. For this new position, the firm has hired veteran finance professional Randy Moreau to join the Financial Management team as Chief Accounting Officer. Moreau has nearly two decades of experience in a senior finance role in both private and public companies.

In his new role, Moreau will be responsible for accounting operations and financial reporting as he leads the firm's accounting, business finance, financial planning and analysis, and compliance efforts. Further, he will work strategically with firm leadership on the overall long-term financial planning and analysis of the firm, as it continues to grow in both the Florida and national legal markets.

"We are thrilled that Randy is joining our leadership team as our Chief Accounting Officer," said Heath S. Eskalyo, CFO and Principal Partner. "Randy's extensive experience working in law firm accounting and the broader financial industry, along with his exceptional leadership and management capabilities, make him an ideal fit for Kelley Kronenberg to support our firm's continued plans for expansion."

Kelley Kronenberg's leadership have invested significantly in additional resources to support the firm's continued expansion and its growing staff. Along with key acquisitions, like Moreau, the firm is also constructing a new headquarters, which was explicitly designed to better connect Kelley Kronenberg's people and clients and implement technology for practicing law in the modern era.

"I am very excited to join the Kelley Kronenberg team as the firm continues to grow and offer more value for our clients," Moreau said. "I look forward to partnering with the rest of the leadership team as we continue to expand and evolve."

Moreau's background includes both national and international business experience in finance, accounting, and general business matters. Before joining Kelley Kronenberg, he worked for one of the nation's leading consultancy boutiques providing financial leadership assistance to large businesses on the development and measurement of business operations, financial forecasting and the implementation of internal controls and best practices. Prior to that, he served as the Chief Financial Officer for another high-profile Florida law firm.

"Randy's acquisition is another building block in our firm's journey to stay ahead of the curve as an organization that is focused on strategy, innovation, and vital strategic initiatives that better serve our people and our clients," said Eskalyo. "His broad finance and accounting experience and deep understanding of our business requirements position him well for success at Kelley Kronenberg."

Moreau earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy from the University of North Dakota. He also received a Master of Business Administration (M.B.A) in International Business and a Master of Accountancy from the University of Miami. He is a Licensed Certified Public Accountant.

Moreau will work out of the firm's headquarters in Fort Lauderdale.
