

Kelley Kronenberg's attorneys have a wide range of experience in the hospitality industry. Our clients include a diverse group of industry members

- Lenders providing financing to hotel owners and hotel investment groups
- Owners and investors in hotels and restaurants
- Vendors servicing the industry
- Hotels/motels
- Country clubs and golf courses
- Bars
- Food distributors
- Grocery stores
- Drug stores
- Public school districts

Our attorneys are experienced in handling a wide range of complex hospitality industry related litigation issues such as:

- Liquor liability
- Premises liability
- Security guard liability
- Labor and employment law
- Products liability
- Transportation liability
- Criminal acts by employees or third parties
- All related appellate law matters

In addition, our attorneys are adept at handling a wide range of complex transactional services on behalf of our hospitality industry clients, including:

- Development of mixed-use projects

- Construction
- Contract review, negotiation, and drafting

At Kelley Kronenberg, our attorneys form a cohesive team of advisers who adeptly handle the legal and business needs of hospitality clients.