

Kelley Kronenberg's attorneys have a wide range of experience in the healthcare industry. Because health care may involve business issues that require experience and capabilities covering a large range of practice areas, our attorneys represent the industry in every facet of the law affecting health care entities and practitioners. At Kelley Kronenberg, attorneys with experience in corporate law, commercial litigation, general liability, workers' compensation, real property litigation, immigration, and labor and employment, work collaboratively to provide comprehensive legal services to our health care clients.

The firm's healthcare clients include hospitals, health care delivery systems, physicians, physician group practices, nursing homes, home health agencies, rehabilitation centers, hospice care facilities, healthcare management companies, assisted living homes, and insurance companies. At Kelley Kronenberg, our attorneys are experienced in the transactional, regulatory, and litigation matters facing the healthcare industry and work together to form a cohesive group of advisors who adeptly handle the legal and business needs of our healthcare clients.
