

Kelley Kronenberg's Complex Commercial Litigation Practice Group has an established record of success handling complicated, high-stakes business disputes. Our Complex Commercial Litigation Practice Group represents state entities, corporations, companies, partnerships, and individuals before federal and state juries, trial courts, appellate courts, and arbitration panels. Combining business acumen with sophisticated and cutting-edge litigation strategies, our Complex Commercial Litigation Team provides exemplary counsel and relentless advocacy to our clients during every stage of litigation.

Our attorneys are not only pre-trial strategists, but highly skilled litigators that pride themselves on trying complex commercial disputes. They adeptly translate complex legal and financial matters into easily understood concepts to which juries and triers of fact can relate, allowing our clients to effectively communicate their claims.

Our Complex Commercial Litigation Team specializes in providing client-focused advice in tandem with a commitment to cost-effective business strategies which often points to resolution of issues through dispute resolution. Whether resolution or trial is the chosen trajectory, our corporate attorneys persistently seek to leverage resources and minimize risk for our clients.

Our litigators have extensive experience representing clients in matters involving:

- Bankruptcy and Reorganization
- Contract Disputes
- Construction Disputes
- Corporate Misconduct and Derivative Suits
- Employer Practices Liability Insurance (EPLI)
- Financial Fraud
- Intellectual Property Disputes
- Insurance Claims
- Professional Negligence
- Real Estate
- Securities Litigation
- Tortious Interference with Contracts

Our attorneys are equipped with the knowledge, skills, and experience to provide each client with unparalleled service across a wide range of critical business matters, including but not limited to the following industries:

- Financial Services
- Insurance

- Telecommunications
- Defense and Security Services
- Pharmaceuticals
- Media, and
- Technology

Our Complex Commercial Litigation Practice Group helps clients assess their options, contain or reduce costs, and establish a course of action consistent with their business goals. Our litigators work closely with our clients to understand their businesses, develop strategies to manage risk, and identify areas of exposure. When appropriate, our team applies a multidisciplinary approach, incorporating attorneys in the firm's related practice areas to provide the most comprehensive legal strategy and afford the greatest chances for success.