

Kelley Kronenberg represents and defends professionals working in various occupations who are frequently subjected to professional liability claims. Our attorneys regularly defend professionals, and their insurance company, against claims alleging violation of professional or ethical standards. Our experience includes representing:

- Insurance Agents
- Directors and Officers
- Accountants
- Lawyers
- Law Enforcement
- Engineers & Architects
- Nurses and Nursing Facilities

The attorneys at Kelley Kronenberg are familiar with these professions and the unique issues that arise in professional liability litigation. Kelley Kronenberg recognizes that a professional's earning capacity and success in his or her chosen field depends entirely on a professional license. Our attorneys understand the importance of an aggressive defense on behalf of our professional liability clients.