

OVERVIEW

Thomas Renda is an Attorney at Kelley Kronenberg where he assists in handling matters related to First Party Insurance Defense Litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Thomas was an Associate General Counsel for a Florida based Property and Casualty insurance company where he prepared litigation plans as well as legal memorandum while defending Field Adjusters and Corporate Representatives in depositions.

Thomas received his Bachelor of Science degree, magna cum laude, in Criminal Justice from Alabama State University. While attending ASU, Thomas played baseball and was First team All-Academic South Western Athletic Conference, Division I Athlete from 2012 - 2015, Southwestern Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Year in 2013, and First Team All-Conference in 2013. He went on to receive his Juris Doctor degree, from Elon University School of Law. While in law school, Thomas served as an intern for the Office of the Public Defender, 9th Judicial Circuit in Orlando, FL. He was also President of the Student Bar Association, Vice President of the Sports and Entertainment Law Society and admissions ambassador.
