

OVERVIEW

Christine Simpson has been with the firm since 1996 as Executive Director. She has additional experience in law firm administration in the areas of medical malpractice and personal injury. She has 30 years of experience in Law Firm Administration and Human Resource Management.

Chris received her undergraduate degree in Education from Temple University before going on to earn another from LaSalle University in Interior Design and a Pennsylvania Real Estate License. She has spoken on various HR-related topics to attorneys, law firm administrators and medical professionals.

Chris is a choir director and is active in church administration and outreach ministries.

CONTACT INFORMATION

csimpson@kklaw.com
Office: (954) 370-9970