

OVERVIEW

Jazlyn Juda Ouimet is a Practice Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, where she assists in handling matters related to first-party insurance defense.

Prior to joining the firm, Jazlyn worked as an Associate Attorney for a boutique law firm in Fort Lauderdale, where she gained experience handling first-party insurance defense.

Jazlyn earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology and Psychology from Florida State University. She then went on to earn her Juris Doctor degree from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad College of Law. While in Law school, Jazlyn served as the Junior and Senior Associate of the Nova Law Review. She also served as a Law Clerk in a boutique Fort Lauderdale law firm where she gained experience analyzing policy coverage limits, provisions, exclusions, and endorsements for personal injury claims.
