

OVERVIEW

Hilda Roman is an Attorney in the firm's Orlando office, where she assists in handling matters related to First and Third Party Insurance Defense, including General Liability and general civil litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Hilda worked as an Associate at a statewide litigation firm, where she represented a number of private and public medical providers throughout Florida in matters relating to personal injury protection, obtaining invaluable experience in litigating PIP cases from inception to resolution.

Hilda earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and her Juris Doctor degree from Florida International University. While in law school, she served as the law school's LexisNexis Student Representative and was a member of the inaugural INTA (International Trademark Association) Moot Court Competition Team. Additionally, Hilda earned Dean's List recognition and received a Book Award for the highest overall grade in the FIU Immigration and Human Rights Legal Clinic.
