

OVERVIEW

Paul Goldstein holds an Of Counsel role at Kelley Kronenberg overseeing Immigration Law Practice.

As an experienced immigration lawyer, Paul focuses his practice on the complex immigration and naturalization laws of the United States. He represents individuals with nationality law issues and immigration matters, including green cards/adjustment of status, consular processing immigrant visas, naturalization and citizenship, fiancé visa (K-1; K-3), Temporary Protected Status (TPS), criminal matters affecting immigration status and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA).

Prior to joining the firm, Paul worked as a solo practitioner and Managing Partner of a boutique law firm devoted exclusively to helping people immigrate to the U.S.

ASSOCIATIONS

- American Immigration Lawyers Association, Member

MEDIA

Publications

- Author, Advice for permanent residents before applying for US citizenship, Expert Beacon, September 16, 2014
- Author, How to correctly suspend or fire an employee with an H1B visa, Expert Beacon, June 27, 2014
- Author, How To Replace a Lost, Stolen or Expired US Green Card, Expert Beacon, May 6 2014
- Author, Use An Experienced Attorney to Claim Asylum in the United States, Expert Beacon, April 22, 2014
- Author, Advice to Employers on Securing an H-1B Visa for Your Foreign Employee, Expert Beacon, November 19, 2013

CONTACT INFORMATION

pgoldstein@kklaw.com
Office: (954) 370-9970 Cell: (954) 257-3649

PRACTICE AREAS

- Immigration Law

ADMISSIONS

- Florida

EDUCATION

- Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center, J.D., 1983
- St. John's University, B.S., 1978