

OVERVIEW

Shannon Little is a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg where she concentrates on matters related to all aspects of first-party property insurance defense and General Liability.

Prior to joining the firm, Shannon worked as a Senior Associate for an insurance defense firm where she gained experience handling S.I.U. fraud cases, uninsured/underinsured motorist cases, coverage disputes, premises liability cases, and third-party liability cases against insureds and self-insureds.

Additionally, Shannon has experience representing insurance carriers in personal injury protection (PIP) claims. She has managed a caseload of over 250 cases and frequently presents seminars to insurance companies and in-house adjusters.

Shannon earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Delaware. She then went on to earn her Juris Doctor from Barry University School of Law.

Shannon is also a Certified Water Damage Restoration Technician, accredited by the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, and Restoration Certification (IICRC).
