

OVERVIEW

Alisha Marano is an Attorney in the firm's Brickell office, where she assists in handling matters related to Family Law, Criminal Defense, First Party Property Insurance Defense, and General Liability

Prior to joining the firm, Alisha worked as a Deputy Attorney General for the New Jersey office of the Attorney General. There she was a criminal prosecutor for the Division of Criminal Justice, Office of the Insurance Fraud Prosecutor. Alisha gained experience on prosecuting criminal fraud in every county on behalf of the State of New Jersey. In addition, Alisha also worked as an Attorney for a Domestic Litigation firm where she represented clients in litigation with a focus on divorce, child custody and support modifications, paternity, and other family law matters covering cases in all of South Florida.

Alisha earned her Bachelor and Master's Degree, cum laude, in Criminal Justice from West Chester University of Pennsylvania. She then went on to pursue her Juris Doctor degree from the St. Thomas University School of Law where she was a Staff Editor for the St. Thomas Law Review.

Alisha is also a Certified Water Damage Restoration Technician, accredited by the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, and Restoration Certification (IICRC).
