

Kelley Kronenberg Adds Two Attorneys to its Fort Lauderdale Office

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Indira Marin and Kimberly A. Innocent have joined the firm's Fort Lauderdale office as Attorneys. Marin assists in handling matters related to Workers' Compensation defense. Before joining the firm, she worked as an associate attorney at an Insurance Defense firm where she gained experience representing employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators in Workers' Compensation matters. Marin earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Florida International University in Political Science and English. She received her Juris Doctor degree from St. Thomas University School of Law, where she graduated cum laude. While in law school, Marin served as Online Editor of the St. Thomas Law

Review. She is fluent in Spanish and is admitted to The Florida Bar. Innocent assists in handling matters related to First- and Third-Party Property Insurance Defense Litigation, including coverage and bad faith litigation. Before joining the firm, Innocent gained experience conducting and defending depositions, preparing motions and memorandums of law for two South Florida law firms. She also attended pre-trial hearings, conducted legal research and settlement analyses. Innocent earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Business from Nova Southeastern University. She then went on to pursue her Juris Doctor degree from Florida International University College of Law. There she was a member of the FIU Law Trial team. She is admitted to practice law in Florida.