

Kelley Kronenberg Coronavirus Text Hotline

As the Coronavirus continues to create business risks & uncertainty, Kelley Kronenberg launched a free text hotline offering business owners and key decision-makers support. The Coronavirus Text Hotline provides general information regarding the impact of a potential or actual Coronavirus pandemic and is not intended to provide specific legal advice. The use of the Hotline is permitted only upon acceptance of its terms of use. For Contract Questions, Text: Harsh Arora, 954-256-0743

Ex: What are the rights and obligations of our business in light of our supplier's inability to timely deliver goods? For Immigration Questions, Text: Sonia Oliveri, 954-241-3492

Ex: How can my foreign employees continue to stay and work legally in the U.S.? For Employment -

Employee Relations Questions, Text: Angelo Filippi, 954-281-9244

Ex: How do I handle ADA accommodation issues for employees at risk and leave vs. telecommuting issues? For Workers' Compensation Questions, Text: Kim

Fernandes, 954-239-7578

Ex: Will my employee's workers' compensation claim for contracting the virus be covered under my policy? For Bankruptcy/Creditors Rights Questions, Text: James Silver, 954-281-7970

Ex: How to deal with financial distress affecting my business or my customers' businesses? For

Construction Questions, Text: Gary Brown, 954-399-6442

Ex: How does our business address delays and inability to perform on projects during this crisis? For Family Law Questions, Text: Natalie Kay, 954-546-9842

Ex: What do I do if my co-parent refuses to exchange our child(ren) until the Pandemic passes?

To read the Terms of Use, click here.