

Kelley Kronenberg Partner Dennis Klein Panelist at “Cybersecurity in 2020: Keeping Breaches off our Beaches” Panel Discussion

Kelley Kronenberg Partner Dennis Klein Panelist at “Cybersecurity in 2020: Keeping Breaches off our Beaches” Panel Discussion
Kelley Kronenberg Partner Dennis Klein will be participating in a panel discussion entitled “Cybersecurity in 2020: Keeping Breaches off our Beaches” presented by the South Florida Business Journal and Comcast Business. In this discussion, attendees will learn IT threats to be aware of in 2020, steps to take to secure your business, and what cyber risks might arise in the years following COVID-19. The panel discussion will take place on Tuesday, August 18 from 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM. To register for this webinar, please click here Dennis Klein Partner in the firm’s Fort Lauderdale office, focusing his practice on business litigation. Having been a partner for almost his entire career in both the DC and Miami offices of a Wall Street-based international law firm, Dennis has prosecuted and defended all facets of commercial litigation. Dennis also specializes in cases across a wide array of substantive areas, including real estate and contractual disputes, professional liability, financial institution issues, product liability, pharmaceutical litigation, bankruptcy, insurance coverage, art law, and employment matters.