

Amy Siegel prepares to walk 60 miles in the Susan G. Komen 3 Day Walk

Kelley Kronenberg is proud to sponsor West Palm Beach, Florida Attorney Amy Siegel as she prepares to walk 60 miles in the Susan G. Komen 3 Day Walk. Amy will travel to Washington DC to participate, for the second time, in this tremendous event.

Individually, Amy has raised over $8,500 towards her cause, and together with her team, she has raised over $11,500 for breast cancer. Seventy-five percent of the net proceeds raised by the Komen 3-Day help support national research and large public health outreach programs and the remaining 25 percent supports local community and Affiliate outreach programs. Amy and her team will then take their commitment to end breast cancer one step further and will walk 60 miles over the course of three days. After months of training, Amy will walk 20 miles per day, for three straight days, in honor and memory of our friends, family members, co-workers, and clients who have battled breast cancer. We join and support Amy in this great endeavor as each step brings us closer to a cure so our children and theirs can know a world free of the disease.
