

Prominent Children's Rights Lawyer Howard Talenfeld Once Again Selected to Florida 500

Fort Lauderdale, FL - Howard M. Talenfeld, a leading children's rights attorney and Business Unit Leader of Justice for Kids, a division of Kelley Kronenberg, has once again been selected by Florida Trend magazine for its annual Florida 500 list. This special section highlights the 500 most influential executives in different economic sectors throughout Florida. As a Partner and Business Unit Leader with Kelley Kronenberg and Justice for Kids, Talenfeld is known as having established a robust children's rights practice. His work on behalf of at-risk children has improved many lives and has resulted in judicial and legislative reforms. He is also the founder and Board President for Florida's Children First (FCF), a statewide advocacy organization protecting the rights of foster children and at-risk youth. His leadership of FCF caught the attention of 2-1-1 Broward, which recently honored him as the Non-Profit Organization Board Leader of the Year in 2020. Earlier this year, Talenfeld was named Chair of The Florida Bar Legal Needs of Children Committee, as appointed by Bar President Dori Foster-Morales. This is his second appointment as Committee Chair, having served in the role from 2009-2010. Among his achievements, Talenfeld was recognized by The Florida Bar Foundation as the recipient of the 2018 Medal of Honor Award for a Lawyer. Additionally, he has been recognized for his efforts with The Florida Bar's President's Award of Merit and the Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award for the 17th Judicial Circuit. He has also received Legal Aid's Russell Carlisle Award for child advocacy law. ###
