

Jeffrey M. Wank Elected Secretary of Florida's Children First Board of Directors

Fort Lauderdale, FL – Kelley Kronenberg is proud to announce that firm Partner Jeffrey M. Wank has been elected Secretary of the Florida's Children First (FCF) Board of Directors. Wank has been involved with FCF for many years, previously serving on the organization's Broward Host Committee. FCF is a statewide advocacy organization focused on protecting the legal rights of at-risk and foster care children. The organization was founded in 2001 by child advocates, volunteers and attorneys from across the state who were working on issues affecting Florida's most vulnerable children. FCF staff, board members, volunteers, and advocates devote their time to ensure that each child in care or in an at-risk situation will have a voice that is heard when decisions are made. Wank joined Kelley Kronenberg in 2016 to focus his practice on Insurance Coverage and First Party Property Insurance Defense Litigation. He is highly active in the community, holding several leadership roles on top of an active and successful insurance defense practice. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the B'nai B'rith Justice Unit and previously served as Chair of the Board of Directors for Legal Aid Service of Broward County (LAS) and Coast to Coast Legal Aid of South Florida (CCLA), Chair of the Jewish Federation of Broward County's Horizons Leadership Program and is a Past President of the Broward County Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section Board of Directors. A graduate of Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, Wank is also involved in mentorship programs to assist younger lawyers in the community.
