

Kelley Kronenberg Supports the 23rd Annual Huntington's Disease Triathlon

On July 27, the Huntington's Disease South Florida Chapter hosted the 23rd Annual Huntington's Disease Triathlon at Larry and Penny Thompson Park in Miami. Kelley Kronenberg proudly supported the fundraiser and served as a corporate sponsor. Firm Principal Partner and CFO, Heath Eskalyo, participated in the triathlon and earned 2nd Place in the competition. Firm Legal Liaison, Vicki Schuerger, her husband Rick, and Sydni Eskalyo volunteered their time and assisted with the event. The South Florida Chapter of the Huntington's Disease Society of America was established in 1990. The chapter is built on volunteers and is dedicated to improving the care of those suffering from Huntington's Disease. All of the proceeds from the Huntington's Disease Triathlon will go directly to research.

