

Greater South Florida Chamber Welcomes Kelley Kronenberg as New Member

Kelley Kronenberg, a nationwide full-service law firm, has joined the Greater South Florida Chamber. The firm is based in Fort Lauderdale and has eight additional offices around the state. "Our new partnership with the Greater South Florida Chamber reinforces our commitment to the local business community," said Michael Fichtel, Kelley Kronenberg's firm-wide managing partner. In the past year, Kelley Kronenberg has increased its attorney team by more than 50 percent. The firm also added several new practice areas, including Government Relations, Trusts & Estates, Bankruptcy, Foreclosures, Criminal Defense and Family Law. Attorneys at Kelley Kronenberg have been listed in Best Lawyers in America, Florida Super Lawyers magazine and the South Florida Legal Guide. Since 1980, the firm has provided high-quality legal services to Fortune 500 companies, insurance companies, entrepreneurs and other business owners. The Greater South Florida Chamber acts as a voice for the South Florida business community. The organization seeks to help its membership "grow, promote and collaborate."
