

The Orlando office was recently admitted to the Orange County Bar Association's 100% Club.

---

The Orlando office was recently admitted to the Orange County Bar Association's 100% Club, which is exclusively reserved for law firms who demonstrate a proven commitment to community service and to advancing the highest standards of legal representation. The firm was honored with this award by the Orange County Bar Association at a luncheon on September 19, 2012.