

State Probe into debt firm that settled with FTC for $2.5 million

Florida officials are investigating a debt collection agency that agreed Monday to pay a $2.5 million civil settlement after the U.S. Federal Trade Commission alleged it made misrepresentations while trying to collect old debts. Click Here to read the full article.