

Broward e-cigarette Investor Wins $241,296 Judgement

As reported by the Daily Business Review, Kelley Kronenberg Partner Steven Osber secured a a $241,296 judgment on behalf of a former Smoking Everywhere investor. It was decided that the now defunct Weston company, Smoking Everywhere, and its co-founder failed to repay Mr. Osber's client for his initial investment. Click here to read the full article.