

Attorney Marc A. Marra Elected President of the NSU Law Alumni Association Broward Chapter

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA. – Marc A. Marra, an attorney in Kelley Kronenberg's Fort Lauderdale office, has been elected President of the Broward Chapter of the Nova Southeastern University (NSU) Law Alumni Association. In this role, Mr. Marra will lead the organization by engaging other alumni within the Broward community to network with one another and support the law school.

Recently, Mr. Marra coordinated a happy hour for the members of this organization at World of Beer Plantation. Kelley Kronenberg was the exclusive sponsor of the event, as NSU Law Alumni gathered for food and drinks to network and socialize.

Mr. Marra received his law degree from Nova Southeastern University in 2011 and is actively involved in community service efforts at his alma mater. Additionally, he volunteers as a Mentor with the NSU Law Mentoring Program.

At Kelley Kronenberg, Mr. Marra handles matters related to Mortgage Banking and Lending services, including regulation, enforcement and transactions for financial service providers. He also actively represents Condominium and Homeowners' Associations, and other self-managed associations in all aspects of operations.
