

Kelley Kronenberg Welcomes Attorneys Lizbell R. Lucero, Amanda Qadri and Danielle A. Wallis to its Miami Office

MIAMI, Fla. — Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Lizbell R. Lucero, Amanda Qadri and Danielle A. Wallis have joined the firm's Miami office as Attorneys.

Lucero assists in handling matters related to First Party Insurance Defense, Property and Casualty Claims, and Complex Commercial Constructions Disputes.

Before she joined Kelley Kronenberg, Lucero was a Managing Member of a law firm in Miami, where she focused on business law, handling entity formation, contracts, and trademark registrations and disputes.

Lucero earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Florida International University and her Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from St. Thomas University School of Law. While attending law school, she served as the Comments Editor of the St. Thomas Law Review. In addition, she earned a spot on the Dean's List four times and was recognized with the Book Award for the highest overall grade in her Advanced Legal Research & Writing course. Lucero is admitted to practice law in Florida and is conversational in Spanish.

Qadri assists in handling matters related to First Party Insurance Defense, Property and Casualty Claims, and Complex Commercial Constructions Disputes.

Before joining the firm, Qadri worked as an Attorney for a statewide personal injury law firm, where she obtained extensive litigation experience, including serving as the second chair in a bench trial for an ownership dispute in a wrongful death action. She has experience handling negligence actions in state and federal court. Additionally, she worked with the Office of the State Attorney as a Certified Legal Intern where she tried multiple bench trials and served as the second chair in a jury trial.

Qadri earned her Bachelor of Science degree, magna cum laude, in Criminal Justice from Florida International University and her Juris Doctor degree from Florida State University College of Law. While in law school, she received three Book Awards for earning the highest overall grade in the respective courses, was a member of the Trial Team, and served as a Teaching Assistant to Professor Talbot Sandy D'Alemberte. Qadri is also acknowledged in Georgetown Law Journal and Iowa Law Review for her research assistance to Professor Justin Sevier.

Qadri is admitted to practice law in Florida and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, and has working knowledge in Spanish and Arabic.

Wallis assists in handling matters related to Third Party liability and casualty defense.

Prior to joining the firm, she was an Associate Attorney with a business defense law firm where she represented corporate clients in bodily injury and premises liability matters. Her background also includes experience in family law.

Wallis earned her Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Miami. She then went on to earn her Juris Doctor degree from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law. While at Nova, she worked as a Law Clerk at a civil litigation firm where she gained experience in personal injury protection and auto accident matters. She also earned Dean's List recognition and was the recipient of the Dean's Certificate of Professionalism. Wallis is admitted to practice law in Florida.