

Kelley Kronenberg's Natalie S. Kay Receives National Association of Distinguished Counsel Fellowship

Fort Lauderdale, FL- Kelley Kronenberg, a diverse business law firm, announced that Natalie S. Kay, partner in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, has received a fellowship in the National Association of Distinguished Counsel Nation's Top One Percent. The National Association of Distinguished Counsel (NADC) prides itself on promoting the highest standards of legal excellence. This fellowship recognizes the nation's top attorneys who raise standards to a new level and have a positive influence on fellow attorneys. Members are vetted by a research team, selected by a blue ribbon panel of attorneys with podium status from independently neutral organizations, and approved by a judicial review board. Kay handles all areas of Family and Marital Law, including representing parties in family appellate matters and having published opinions in the Fourth District Court of Appeal in Florida. She also practices Commercial Litigation and serves as general counsel for franchise owners and corporations. Recognized for her outstanding legal work, she is a recipient of the Avvo Client's Choice Award for receiving excellent reviews from satisfied clients. Kay is a graduate of Nova Southeastern University's Shepard Broad College of Law and is admitted to practice law in Florida and in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.