

Kelley Kronenberg has a cross-disciplinary team of corporate and transaction lawyers who provide industry-leading advice to clients on all aspects of business. These attorneys have advised business executives ranging from seasoned CEO's to hard-charging entrepreneurs.

As a progressive and business-minded law firm, Kelley Kronenberg understands that legal solutions must always be focused first upon the business needs of the client. Our Attorneys always strive to guide our clients through transactions that drive their bottom line.

Kelley Kronenberg's Business Transaction Attorneys provide counsel in all areas of business development, from entity formation and structuring to negotiation of agreements and contract management. As trusted advisors, our attorneys stand ready to assist clients on legal issues related to all aspects of a company's ongoing business activities.

Our Attorneys address all of our clients' diverse day-to-day business needs including:

- Articles of Incorporation
- Business Planning
- Bylaws for both Profit and Not for Profit Corporations (S-Corp and C-Corp)
- Commercial Leasing
- Complex Corporate Transactions
- Confidentiality Agreements
- Contracts
- Corporate Formation
- Due Diligence
- e-Commerce
- Employment Contracts
- Financing
- Insurance
- Internet Law
- Licensing Agreements
- Membership Agreements
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Non-Disclosure Agreements (NDA's)
- Non-Compete
- Non-Solicitation Agreements
- Operating Agreements
- Payment Processing and Liability Issues
- Privacy Policies for end-user websites
- Release and Waivers
- Sale and Purchase of Business
- Shareholder and Partnership Agreements
- Software Licensing Agreements
- Stock Option Documents (stock incentive plans, notice of stock option grants, and option agreements)
- Vendor Contracts
- Workers' Compensation