

Business Bankruptcy, Insolvency, and Commercial Creditors' Rights

Kelley Kronenberg's Business Bankruptcy, Insolvency, and Commercial Creditors' Rights Division is amongst the most proficient and progressive practices in Florida. We represent parties in commercial bankruptcy matters, receiverships, assignments for the benefit of creditors, and other insolvency and creditors' rights related litigation.

Our practice includes representation of:

- Buyers of Distressed Assets
- Creditors' Committees
- Equity Holders
- Landlords
- Lenders and other Secured Creditors
- Preference and Fraudulent Transfer Defendants
- Receivers
- Trustees
- Unsecured Creditors

We also handle litigation arising from Ponzi and other fraudulent schemes, the Chair of this Division having taken a lead role in representing large victim groups in the bankruptcy proceedings arising from the billion-dollar Scott Rothstein Ponzi scheme, one of the largest Ponzi schemes in history and the largest in Florida.

We proudly provide representation in the following areas:

- Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors
- Bankruptcy Litigation
- Clawback Claims
- Creditors' Rights Litigation
- Fraudulent Transfer Claims
- Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 Business Bankruptcies
- Preference Claims

- Receivership
- SEC Receivership
- Workouts

Our Business Bankruptcy, Insolvency, and Commercial Creditors' Rights Division provides tough, seamless representation inside and outside the bankruptcy courtroom. We are unwaveringly dedicated to solving problems and reaching successful resolutions, both in and out of court.

When appropriate, our team leverages the firm's other practice areas, offering a multi-disciplinary approach to provide comprehensive legal advice and more efficient problem solving. Our attorneys periodically collaborate with our Real Estate Division, Commercial Litigation Division, and Financial Services Litigation Division, and other divisions within the firm. Our synergetic approach results in creative, customized, and cost-efficient service. We endeavor to provide practical, informed and streamlined solutions that deliver the best available solutions.
