

Kelley Kronenberg's Bankruptcy Consumer Creditor's Rights Practice Group has extensive experience in matters involving Bankruptcy, Replevin and Collection, as well as Consumer Creditors' Rights for major national consumer lenders, consumer finance companies and automobile finance companies in all Bankruptcy courts throughout the state of Florida. The group demonstrates a diverse skillset and can accommodate creditors with varying needs.

Our Bankruptcy Consumer Creditor's Rights Practice Group works proactively to develop and implement strategies to mitigate sensitive financial situations. With decades of experience assisting creditors in consumer bankruptcy matters, we strive to provide effective counseling and are dedicated to vigorously defending them in litigation. Collections is a key component to this area of law and our knowledge allows us to better advise our clients regarding their rights as creditors.

To enhance the services we provide our clients, Kelley Kronenberg's Bankruptcy Consumer Creditor's Rights Practice Group provides complementary resources to the firm's Mortgage Foreclosure and Real Property Litigation Practice Group and Collections Finance and Asset Recovery Group.

We offer a full range of legal services, including:

- Avoidance actions
- Preference actions
- Discharge and dischargeability actions
- Fraudulent transfer actions
- Subordination actions
- Involuntary bankruptcy petitions
- Plan confirmation objections
- Proposed asset sales
- Compromises and proposed settlements
- Stay relief motions
- Proof of claim allowance matters