

Kelley Kronenberg's Collections, Finance and Asset Recovery Practice Group handles both commercial and consumer collection litigation in all courts throughout the Florida and Illinois. Our Attorneys regularly represent banks and non-bank lenders, secured and unsecured creditors, and business organizations that are owed money in comprehensive, debt recovery matters.

Our thorough understanding of state and federal governing laws and regulations, financial lending operations, and the collections process, enables us to devise a collection strategy unique to each clients' recovery objective.

Kelley Kronenberg's Collections, Finance and Asset Recover Attorneys are negotiators, investigators, collectors and litigators with a proven track record of success for our banking and financial lending clients. Our Attorneys aggressively pursue collection of judgments by implementing tactics such as wage garnishments, property levies, seizure and other legal remedies.

Our Collections, Finance and Asset Recovery Practice Group maintains policies and practices compliant with all applicable federal and state governing laws and regulations, including the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA).

Our Attorneys are also adept at handling vehicle and equipment repossession matters. We represents creditors in all aspects of asset recovery and offer a full range of services, including:

- Appellate Representation
- Acquired Debt
- Automobile Loans, Deficiencies and Leases
- Bankruptcy: Claims, Reaffirmations, and Litigation
- Charged-Off Assets, Second Liens & Credit Card Balances
- Commercial litigation
- Credit Card Debt
- Judgment collections
- Mortgage Deficiencies/ Real Estate Foreclosures
- Real Estate and Lien Related collections
- Replevin/Repossession
- Secured Transactions
- Unsecured collections

Kelley Kronenberg's Collections, Finance and Asset Recovery Practice Group Attorneys have decades of experience offering compliance and general business advice to our business, banks and financial service provider clients. Our comprehensive litigation experience, combined with our general banking, lending, asset recovery, commercial litigation, and real estate law expertise works in our clients' favor. Our ultimate goal is to reduce our client's regulatory risk by providing comprehensive legal counsel at each stage of the recovery process.