

Kelley Kronenberg Attorneys are available not only to represent clients at mediation, but also to serve as court appointed mediators. Mediated disputes tend to be less costly, faster, and result in more favorable outcomes than matters resolved through traditional litigation. We can provide mediation services that effectively reconcile and resolve conflict and legal disagreements in a cost efficient way. Our Attorneys act as neutral participants to help parties and Attorneys negotiate effectively through the negotiation and mediation process. Our skilled negotiators facilitate the best possible settlements while preserving amiable relationships.

Our Attorneys in the Mediation Practice Group are Florida Supreme Court Certified Mediators and specialize in mediating in various substantive areas of law including, workers' compensation, elder law, residential mortgage foreclosure, and bankruptcy.
