

Kelley Kronenberg's Medical Malpractice Attorneys have extensive experience in the defense of health care professionals and hospitals. Our Attorneys are well versed in the complex state and federal healthcare law, rules and regulations, and offer the practical solutions, advice and guidance necessary to help our Healthcare clients navigate this specialized field in Florida.

Our clients trust Kelley Kronenberg to defend them in complex, multi-million dollar claims against health care institutions. The firm's healthcare clients include hospitals, health care delivery systems, physicians, physician group practices, nursing homes, home health agencies, rehabilitation centers, hospice care facilities, healthcare management companies, assisted living homes, and insurance companies.

Our Attorneys are sensitive to the challenges faced by those in the health care industry, and excel at designing individualized solutions for complex litigation. Our Medical Malpractice Attorneys understand that the nature of malpractice allegations are serious and sensitive, and these claims can significantly impact the reputation of health care providers and financial implications. Kelley Kronenberg's Medical Malpractice Attorneys provide well-reasoned case analyses to assist clients with pretrial litigation decisions and with their assessments for each case. Should the need for trial arise, our Medical Malpractice Attorneys are seasoned litigators, who do not shy away from court. Our Attorneys have a proven track record of successfully defending clients, often in the most difficult of venues.

Kelley Kronenberg's Medical Malpractice Attorneys represent clients in matters related to an array of legal issues for all medical specialties, including anesthesiology, emergency medicine, dentistry, family practice, gastroenterology, general surgery, internal medicine, neurosurgery, nursing, obstetrics and gynecology, oncology, ophthalmology, pediatrics, podiatry, psychiatry/psychology, and radiology. Our Medical Malpractice Attorneys have the knowledge and experience to confidently address and vigorously defend our clients against claims of malpractice and professional liability.