

Kelley Kronenberg's Complex Commercial Litigation Team has an established record of success in complicated, high-stakes business disputes combining business acumen with sophisticated, cutting-edge litigation strategies, our Complex Commercial Litigation Team represents companies in litigation and alternative dispute resolution proceedings across a broad range of industries. Our Team has successfully represented clients in the financial services, insurance, telecommunications, defense and security services, pharmaceuticals, media and technology industries.

Our Complex Commercial Litigation Team represents state entities, corporations, companies, partnerships and individuals before federal and state juries, trial courts, appellate courts, and arbitration panels. Our Attorneys are not only pre-trial strategists, but highly skilled litigators that pride themselves on trying complex commercial disputes. Our Complex Commercial Litigation Team adeptly translates complex legal and financial matters into easily understood concepts to which juries and triers of fact can relate, allowing our clients to effectively communicate their claims to those considering them.

Our Litigators have extensive experience representing clients in matters involving:

- Bankruptcy and Reorganization
- Contract Disputes, including Breach of Contract and tortious interference with contracts
- Construction Disputes
- Corporate Misconduct and Derivative Suits
- Employment and Shareholder Disputes
- Financial Fraud
- Intellectual Property Disputes
- Insurance Claims
- Real Estate
- Securities Litigation
- Professional Negligence

Our Complex Commercial Litigation Team helps clients assess their options, contain or reduce costs, and lay out a course of action consistent with their business goals. Our Litigators work closely with our clients to understand their businesses, develop strategies to manage risk, and identify areas of exposure.