

Retail clients need a law firm capable of representing them in virtually all areas of defense, with the size and skills necessary to respond rapidly to the challenges and opportunities of their business. Kelley Kronenberg offers a comprehensive approach and provides timely, practical counseling and aggressive defense of litigation in virtually all areas of retail liability. Our attorneys understand the unique business concerns of our retail clients and strive to provide advice that helps to minimize the inherent risks involved in running retail establishments.

Our services include assisting clients with regulatory compliance, business and commercial litigation, environmental matters, employment and labor issues, and government relations. Kelley Kronenberg offers our retail industry clients seasoned attorneys and litigators experienced in areas critical to retail, restaurant, and franchise businesses. Kelley Kronenberg's retail clients include many of the nations leading chains, big box stores, department stores, restaurants, discount retailers, grocery stores, and pharmacies.

Our attorneys have developed a comprehensive understanding of the businesses in which our clients operate and successfully represented national, regional, and local retailers, directly and through their general liability insurers in issues including; third-party liability claims, commercial litigation matters, third-party criminal acts, products liability, employment and labor disputes, and workers' compensation claims.