

Kelley Kronenberg's Bankruptcy Commercial Creditor's Rights Practice Group has extensive experience in matters involving secured and unsecured creditors, creditors' committees, and trustees in complex commercial bankruptcy cases. The firm's commercial creditor clients are varied, including major local and national financial institutions as well as medium and small corporations and Fortune 500 companies. In any given case, we may represent the secured creditor, an unsecured creditor or a creditors' committee, the debtor, the suppliers of goods or services to the debtor or another interested party.

Our Bankruptcy Commercial Creditor's Rights Practice Group works proactively to develop and implement strategies to mitigate sensitive financial situations. With decades of experience assisting creditors in commercial bankruptcy matters, we strive to provide effective counseling and are dedicated to vigorously defending them in litigation.

To enhance the services we provide our clients, Kelley Kronenberg's Bankruptcy Commercial Creditor's Rights Practice Group provides complementary resources to the firm's Bankruptcy Consumer Creditor's Rights Practice Group, Mortgage Foreclosure and Real Property Litigation Practice Group and Collections Finance and Asset Recovery Group.

Our clients include:

- Financial institutions
- Trade creditors
- Financing lenders
- Creditors' committees
- Purchasers of financially distressed businesses.
