Kelley Kronenberg Cares

Kelley Kronenberg organized a firm-wide Girl Scout Cookie collection for military troops as part of its ongoing Kelley Kronenberg Cares program.

Nicknamed “Operation Cookie,” this is the firm’s third KKC project. Throughout January and February, members of Kelley Kronenberg’s Florida offices competed in an interoffice competition to purchase and collect cookies for troops overseas. The firm’s members collected more than 300 boxes of Girl Scout Cookies for donation.

“Kelley Kronenberg’s Operation Cookie initiative is a way for the members of the firm to support our local communities and the Girl Scouts, while sending a little taste of home to our soldiers abroad,” said Howard Wander, principal partner and chief operating officer of the full-service business law firm. “The courageous men and women who serve in our military do so much to protect the freedoms we all enjoy. This gesture is one small way to show our appreciation and support to those who work so diligently to protect us.”
