Kelley Kronenberg Senior Partner Steven P. Kronenberg Selected to Workers' Compensation Hall of Fame, Inaugural Class

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. – Steven P. Kronenberg, a Senior Partner and one of the founding members of the statewide law firm Kelley, Kronenberg, Gilmartin, Fichtel, Wander, Bamdas, Eskalyo & Dunbrack, P.A., was selected to join the inaugural class of the Florida Workers' Compensation Institute's "Workers' Compensation Hall of Fame." This first class was nominated and elected as of August 1, 2011.

The Board of Directors of the Florida's Workers' Compensation Institute (FWCI) established this prestigious group to honor participants in the Workers' Compensation system who have devoted their lives to the practice and, through their work, have provided significant advancements to the system. In addition to Mr. Kronenberg, the inaugural class consists of claimant and defense lawyers, and Judges of Compensation Claims, as well as individuals from the claims industry.

Mr. Kronenberg is a regular instructor at the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Trial Advocacy Workshop and a frequent speaker at the Association of Workers' Compensation Claims Professionals (WCCP) and FWCI conventions. He is a past member of the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Section Executive Council, as well as a Member Emeritus and past Judicial Liaison. He is also a past member of the Rules Committee of the Florida Bar's Workers' Compensation Section, and past Chairman of the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Section. In addition, he has served as the Florida Bar Journal's Workers' Compensation Editor and Editor of the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Newsletter. Mr. Kronenberg is a member of the Miami-Dade County and Florida Bar Associations.

He has been included in both Best Lawyers in America and Florida Leading Attorneys since 1997. He is a former recipient of a Friends of 440 Honoree Award and a Merit Award from the Judges of Compensation Claims. Mr. Kronenberg has also been named in the South Florida Legal Guide under "Top Lawyers," and is named in Florida Super Lawyers magazine as one of the top Workers' Compensation attorneys in Florida for 2010.

He received his Bachelor's degree and law degree from the University of Miami.
