

Hometown Attorney Becomes Partner at Kelley Kronenberg

BY BEVERLY PERKINS

Louis Reinstein recently joined Kelley Kronenberg as a Partner. The full-service, diverse business law firm that provides litigation and other legal services to established corporations, insurance companies, entrepreneurs and individuals in Florida and other regions of the U.S. welcomed the Plantation resident.

"Plantation is my hometown and where my family and I still live today. I am excited to be working here and to further my involvement in this community by providing legal services and counsel to my neighbors," said Mr. Reinstein.

Reinstein focuses his practice on Police Professional Litigation, Correctional Healthcare, Civil Rights Violations, Commercial Litigation and Appeals. He has extensive experience in state and federal civil court working on both trial and appellate cases. Throughout his career, he has handled a variety of matters including business litigation, civil rights actions, commercial litigation, insurance defense, and premises liability claims.

Prior to beginning his legal career, Reinstein was a Teacher and Coach at the David Posnack Jewish Day School. He continues to be actively involved in the local community as the Chair of the Educational Advisory Board for the City of
